Finding an Advisor who we both felt comfortable with, and whom we could trust was extremely important to us. Rhonda carefully listened to our needs, our worries, and the importance of feeling secure in a carefully planned wealth management strategy. We look forward to many years of working with Rhonda and her team.

We have never regretted our decision to move our business to Rhonda, because she continues to look after us as well today as from the first day. We have no hesitation in recommending Rhonda to others and in fact have done so several times.

— Bruce and Jacquie Jones

We have been associated with RBC Dominion Securities for more than 20 years. During this time numerous changes have been made both to our investments and estate plan. Rhonda and her associates have met our needs extremely well, managing our portfolio during both good and bad times.
